Proposed Use

Explain what you want to do with the property. (Do you want to build a building, subdivide a lot, have a business, ...).

Explain why you need the Zoning Board to let you do it. (The building will be too close to the lot line; the Planning Board wouldn't approve your subdivision; your lot is in a zoning district where businesses aren't allowed; ...).

Be specific. Identify the section or sections of the Zoning Ordinance that apply. If lot sizes or configurations or building placements are relevant, provide a scale drawing or plan showing all relevant information, such as lot lines, setbacks, present and proposed structures on your lot and neighboring lots, etc.

Description of proposed use and need for ZBA approval (attach additional pages as necessary):

We want to Attach an in law suit to our existing name. Our Parents will be moving in.

Application for a Variance, Page 1 of 2

When, because of the specific characteristics of your property, the Zoning Ordinance unreasonably restricts your use of your property without a corresponding public benefit, the Zoning Board may grant a Variance, which modifies or sets aside particular requirements of the Ordinance.

The specific section of the Zoning Ordinance to be varied: 17.1 (e)

The requirement in that section that you want to change, and how you want it changed:

We are requesting to build a structure totaling 800 Sq Ft Attached For an in law use. Access doors connect to the main house. No Additional Parking needed.

To grant a variance, the Zoning Board must find that it will satisfy each of the following five conditions. Please explain why you believe that each of the following statements is true (attach additional pages as necessary).

These five conditions come from the New Hampshire statutes and decisions of the state Supreme Court. Unless you are familiar with Zoning law, the language of these conditions probably does not mean what you think it means. If you have not applied for a variance before, we recommend that you consult with the Wilton Land Use Administrator or obtain professional advice.

1. Granting the variance would not be contrary to the public interest: Neighbors have been notified Existing duplexes already are on this street.

2. Granting the variance would be consistent with the spirit of the Ordinance: The Reason For this addition to our home is so my parents can move in.

3. Granting the variance would do substantial justice: In Family members will be occupying this home.

4. The proposed use will not diminish surrounding property values: This building will increase the value of all homes in this area

Application for a Variance, Page 2 of 2

5. Literal enforcement of the provision of the ordinance would result in unnecessary hardship.
Complete section 5(a), 5(b), OR 5(c):

5(a) i. Owing to special conditions of the property that distinguish it from other properties in the area:

N/A - Surrounding homes also have in law additions on site.

ii. no fair and substantial relationship exists between the general public purposes of the ordinance provision and the specific application of that provision to the property:

N/A All neighbors are aware of our build. Setback have been met.
Professional Plans have been Submitted

iii. and the proposed use is a reasonable one:

Parents to live on site with daughter Family members only will occupy the new dwelling.

5(b) Owing to special conditions of the property that distinguish it from other properties in the area, the property cannot be reasonably used in strict conformance with the ordinance, and a variance is therefore necessary to enable a reasonable use of it

This build is appropriate for the neighborhood

5(c) Hardship resulting from a physical disability.

i. The variance is necessary to make reasonable accommodations to allow a person with a recognized physical disability to reside in or regularly use the premises:

Homeowner Michael Grewell has an existing heart condition. Building this structure ensures family members will remain together to assist in any way necessary

ii. The variance is in harmony with the general purpose and intent of the zoning ordinance:

Requesting to build 800sqft which will be attached to existing structure.

Application for a Special Exception

A Special Exception is a use which is permitted by the Zoning Ordinance, but requires approval from the Zoning Board. Every special exception is allowed by some section or subsection of the Ordinance. Most special exceptions have a list of requirements; the Zoning Board can only approve the special exception if it finds that all the requirements are satisfied.

Note that in addition to the specific requirements that may be listed for a particular special exception, all special exceptions are subject to the general requirements in Section 4.12 of the Zoning Ordinance.

What section of the Zoning Ordinance defines the Special Exception that you are applying for? 17.1(e)
